

Carefully review the Delegate Directory to identify new business opportunities for your company. The Directory lists Supplier/Media companies separately from the Buyer companies.

▶ HOW TO SELECT YOUR REQUEST LIST

Review the Electronic Delegate Directory carefully and select the companies with whom you would like an appointment.

Prioritize the Companies from first to last, with the first request being the Company that you would like to have an appointment with the most. Do not list your appointment requests alphabetically, but in order of priority. The Company with your highest preference for scheduling an appointment should be listed first, and so on, until you have completed your requests. By doing this, your final schedule is more likely to include your preferences.

The order in which you prioritize your appointment requests will be the order in which they are processed by the computer in scheduling appointments.

Remember, the more appointments you request, the better your chances are for having a full schedule during Caribbean Travel Marketplace. The system allows for up to 66 appointment requests per appointment taking delegate.

Buyers - Do not overlook new Supplier Companies who requested your company. These Suppliers may represent a new business opportunity for you in the Caribbean.

It is important that you contact the companies you want to meet before coming to Caribbean Travel Marketplace. Contact them by telephone, fax, or Email and provide as much specific information about your company as possible. It is recommended that you contact any company you wish to meet after you have requested them; the company that you have requested may not know your product and as such making direct contact may improve your chances of having a perfect match.

HOW TO PREPARE FOR CARIBBEAN TRAVEL MARKETPLACE

AFTER SCHEDULES ARE FINALIZED

a) Appointment Prospect List

After the Appointment request deadline, you will receive your Appointment Prospect Lists which are made up of the following:

1. Your pre-scheduled appointments;
2. Suppliers and/or Buyers and/or Media Sponsors delegates with whom you requested an appointment, but which the system could not schedule due to no common time available between the two delegates or because the request did not followed the appointment parameters.

Remember that CHTA's Matchmaker© appointment scheduling system only schedules perfect match appointments; "Buyer only" requested appointments and "Supplier only requests" with media.

Buyers -Do not overlook new Supplier Companies who requested your company. These Suppliers may represent a new business opportunity for you in the Caribbean.

After receiving your Appointment Prospect List (your scheduled and unscheduled appointments) you should contact any of these companies which are of interest to you to arrange an appointment at a mutually convenient time.

b) Getting the most from your appointment sessions

Scheduled appointments take place on the second and third day during Caribbean Travel Marketplace. The Marketplace business floor remains open until 6:00 p.m. on both business days for additional appointments.

The pre-scheduled appointments are the primary reason delegates attend Caribbean Marketplace and we encourage Buyers and Suppliers to maximize the business opportunities during each appointment.

We request that Buyers follow their appointment schedule and to keep all business appointments.

In order to cancel or reschedule an appointment with a Supplier, Buyers must complete the Appointment Cancellation Form before the start of the Sessions on the first business day.

Each Delegate is provided with three Appointment Cancellation Forms in their registration package. Delegates should leave the cancellation forms at the CHTA Registration Desk for delivery.

If you find while in a pre-scheduled appointment with a Supplier that you require additional time, please do not keep the next Buyer waiting by overextending your appointment time. We recommend that you arrange a follow up appointment with that Supplier at a later time.

General tips to help you in maximizing the sessions:

- Try to maximize your business opportunities during each appointment.
- Be on time for each appointment and do not miss an appointment. Doing so could seriously damage your personal and business credibility and may impact your ability to obtain a future appointment with the Buyer.
- Check the message boards frequently and action each message immediately.
- Do not keep Buyers waiting, and be ready to receive your next appointment. If you find that you need more time with the Buyer you are meeting, arrange a mutually convenient time to meet again, but do not keep the arriving Buyer waiting.

- Remember that the Buyer expects to be able to finalize business with you during the appointment. You must have the ability to do this and the necessary information, including your advance rate schedule, and be ready to close the sale.
- Buyers have complained in the past that some Suppliers do not come equipped to finalize business and have therefore wasted the time and the expense of the Buyer in coming to Caribbean Travel Marketplace. This only results in a lost business opportunity for the Supplier and makes it harder to attract the Buyers to future Caribbean Travel Marketplace events.
- Record all business commitments you make, follow up on any outstanding matters, and do not commit for anything you are not able to deliver to the Buyer.

c) Sales and marketing check list

The following points will help you to make sure you are adequately prepared with everything you need to do business at Caribbean Travel Marketplace:

1. A supply of business cards with full contact information-remember you'll be networking from dawn to dusk.
2. Your rates and fact sheets.
3. Your billing, deposit, and refund policies, as well as any prepayment policy.
4. Any regulations on foreign exchange controls which a Buyer should be familiar with.
5. Brochures of your product and services-ideally, consider an online presentation. The business floor will be a hot-spot, so you can be connected wirelessly.
6. Brochures, fact sheet about your destination-including the names of international airlines that serve it and their schedules, calendar of events, and a map of your destination. This is important if your tourist board is not represented at Caribbean Travel Marketplace. If your tourist board is in attendance at Caribbean Travel Marketplace, coordinate with them to avoid bringing excessive printed material that may go to the waste bin at the end of the event.
7. Promotional slides, presentations, and videos of your product.
8. Clippings of positive press coverage of your company/destination.
9. Press kit and press photographs in black and white and color for the press room.
10. If this is your first Caribbean Travel Marketplace, you may find it useful to speak with a colleague who has attended in previous years. It may also help to role-play your appointments to be sure that you are comfortable with your presentation, key talking points, and frequently-asked questions.
11. Copies of your own custom form to take notes during your appointments. This will allow you to be more efficient and will make your follow-up action easier when you return home.

d) General tips

- The Delegates you choose to represent your company at Caribbean Travel Marketplace should be completely knowledgeable about your company and its products and services.
- Your Delegates must have the ability and the authority to negotiate rates, make decisions and commitments, and to sign contracts.
- Your Delegates must be familiar with the terminology in the different international markets of the travel industry and be able to recognize the different needs of the international Buyers. Multi-lingual capabilities are a definite advantage.
- Suppliers must be prepared to negotiate rates and sign contracts. It is very important that your Delegates are familiar with your current rates. Suppliers should be prepared to negotiate rates for the current year as well as the year following.
- Suppliers should negotiate rates far enough in advance to allow Buyers sufficient lead time to produce their brochure.
- Be consistent in building and setting your rates, taking all factors into consideration. Remember that Buyers exchange information on rates offered by Suppliers.
- Your credibility and that of your company is extremely important. You should immediately follow up on any outstanding rate negotiations with Buyers. Take notes during appointments and action the notes immediately on your return to your office.
