RENTALS/AUDIOVISUAL – If you need any audio visual, you must complete the form on this link and email to: GrandHyattBahaMar@encore-us.com.

The selling floor will be carpeted; you can bring your own pop-up/standing banner and your own display can be placed as long as it fits within the size purchased. Nothing can be affixed to the backdrop.

Open Wi-fi is available for free across the property and in conference areas.

You will receive the booth number information when you pick up your registration credentials on-site. All vendors will have the appropriate information to process your rental orders. Please do not send emails to inquire about your booth number.

SHIPPING INFORMATION

If you need to ship conference materials, please review the guidelines on this document. CHTA highly recommends the use of the designated conference broker to assist in transferring and clearing your materials to the event venue. Every exhibitor is responsible for the costs associated with shipping, brokerage, customs duties, taxes, freight forwarding and transfers. Due to limited storage space, Baha Mar Resort does not accept advance deliveries.

Deadline for materials to reach warehouse in Miami – January 8, 2020
